What Happens When We Ask People to Serve?

Why Ask?

A great article by Heather Roth Johnson on how we move people who see ministry as an obligation to an opportunity and ownership.

Good Reads

Title: The Challenge of Diversity: The Witness of Paul and the Gospels

Author: David Rhoads

The book is useful in teaching, preaching, spiritual formation, and mission. Its aim is simply to be a source of Christian renewal at both the personal and the parish levels as together we seek to minister to one another and to the world. It is an invitation to reach beyond our own perspective and to embrace a wider circle of diverse viewpoints as legitimate expressions of the Christian life—both in the New Testament and in the contemporary church—and to be open to learn and grow from them.

Retreat News

The national board is considering having a national diakonia graduates' gathering in 2020. More info to come!

ELCA Churchwide Assembly Declares ELCA a Sanctuary Church

In a key action, the 2019 ELCA Churchwide Assembly voted to approve a memorial that declares the ELCA a sanctuary church. The ELCA is the first North American denomination to declare itself a sanctuary church body. As a sanctuary church, the ELCA is committed to serving and supporting migrant children and families in communities across the country.
